

Program

link Zoom: <https://upr-si.zoom.us/j/89978659922?pwd=Mk5GbkJpekJUQXpqTWWh4YU0zbmdvZz09>

Meeting ID: 899 7865 9922
Passcode: 884468

A Imagine: Migrants on the deck of the ship Berengaria given to Britain as part of Germany's reparations after the war. Her first voyage (1920) was from Liverpool to New York. After that she sailed from Southampton

Friday
24.11.
2023

Migrations and development

Part 1:

09.00 - 09.30

Žarko Lazarević: Introductory remarks

09.30 - 10.00

Luigi Lorenzetti and Fabio Rossinelli: Return migration and real estate projects: philanthropy and/or speculation? The examples of Locarno and Le Locle (late 19th century)

10.00 - 10.30

Borut Žerjal: Altruistic and redistributive effects of emigration. Testamentary legacies in Ticino (XVIII-XX centuries)

10.30 - 10.50 Coffee Break

10.50 - 11.20

Fabio Rossinelli: The social reproduction of a patrician and migrant family: the De Pury family of Neuchâtel between the end of the Ancien Régime and World War I

11.20 - 11.50

Matthieu Gillibert: The (non-)specificities of emigration from Neuchâtel to the Atlantic world during the long 19th century: some milestones for research

11.50 - 12.30 Discussion and Coffee Break

Part 2:

12.30 - 13.00

Aleks Kalc, Migrant remittances in Slovenia in the light of family correspondences

13.00 - 13.30

Miha Zobec, Emigrant Remittances and their Impact on the Interwar Yugoslavia and Yugoslavian Slovenia

13.30 - 14.00

Janja Sedlaček, Migration and Economic and Social Remittances in the District of Gornji Grad in the 20th Century

14.00 - 15.00 Discussion, Final Discussion and perspectives

15.00 Lunch

